The Legend of Gatorface

"Tomorrow at sunrise, the legend begins..."

With that, teen pranksters Danny (Johnny White) and Phil (Dan Warry-Smith) put the finishing touches on what they hope will become the hottest thing to hit Vernon, Mississippi since the sun. An old wet suit, a batch of green scales, a dash of imagination and, tomorrow at sunrise, the good people of Vernon will come face to face with a local myth come to life: Gatorface!

What the boys don't realize, however, is that frightened citizens don't take well to swamp monsters. Neither do National Guardsmen. Come to think of it, the real Gatorface isn't all that amused either! Paul Winfield, David Johnson, Pam Hyatt, Scott Wickware and Charlotte Sullivan costar in this engaging family comedy. Jack Higgins' On Dangerous Ground

Hired to maintain security at an important international conference, terrorist-turned-professional-marksman Sean Dillon (Rob Lowe) has instead become a pawn in a very different game. Namely, a mad dash to secure a document that would secure Britain's lease on Hong Kong to the year 2097. Caught between the British, the Chinese, the Mafia and even his former IRA comrades, Sean Dillon is indeed a man on dangerous ground. Jürgen Prochnow and Daphne Cheung costar in this thrilling adaptation of Jack Higgins' best-seller.

Moonshine Highway

With the popularity of stockcar racing on the rise, some of rural America's very best drivers are beginning to answer the call. We're talking about moonshine runners, and when it comes to high-speed pyrotechnics, Jed Muldoon (Kyle MacLachlan) is a backwoods legend. But before Muldoon can even consider a career in racing, he'll have to deal with a local sheriff (Randy Quaid) who's got other plans for his future. That is, to kill the driver over an affair with his wife. The race is on in this high-octane drama.

Crimson Tide

The order is unclear, but as far as Captain Ramsay (Gene Hackman) of the nuclear submarine USS Alabama is concerned, it's an order to fire on Russia. Executive Officer Hunter (Denzel Washington) disagrees strongly, and with the fate of the entire world hanging in the balance, a confused and frightened crew is choosing sides.... Camp Nowhere

Only a kid could dream up a summer camp known for video games, junk food and no rules. When a group of reluctant would-be campers get that very idea, they get a down-on-his-luck drama teacher (Christopher Lloyd) to help them pull it off. Will their parents smell a ruse? Wendy Makenna, M. Emmet Walsh and Peter Scolari costar in this warm-weather comedy.

Dolores Claiborne

Dolores Claiborne (Kathy Bates) stands accused of murdering her employer, and most folks believe that she's guilty. Why? Because they believe that she already got away with killing her husband. Her estranged daughter (Jennifer Jason Leigh) doesn't know what to believe, but before it's over, everybody will believe that dark secrets destroy lives. From Stephen King's novel.
